

Anya M. Schnoor,

Director, Scotiabank
Trinidad and Tobago
Limited.

Scotiabank welcomes Anya M. Schnoor to its Board of Directors.

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited has appointed Anya M. Schnoor to its Board of Directors effective October 30, 2020.

Having held progressively senior roles across Trinidad and Tobago, Jamaica and Canada over her 28 year career, including the position of Managing Director of Scotiabank Trinidad & Tobago Limited during 2012-2017, Anya M. Schnoor was recently appointed the Executive Vice-President, Caribbean, Central America & Uruguay (CCAU), International Banking. In this role, Anya leads the development of the overall strategic direction for the Bank's personal, commercial, corporate, wealth, and insurance operations for the countries in the region. In her most recent role as Executive Vice President, Retail Products, Canadian Banking, Anya led major initiatives that launched new innovative solutions and fundamentally transformed the way Scotiabank serves its retail customers in Canada.

Anya is currently a Director on various Scotiabank subsidiary boards and is an active member of the community and serves on the Campaign Cabinet for the United Way of the Greater Toronto Region. She is also a member of the International Women's Forum (IWF), an organization dedicated to supporting the next generation of women leaders.

Anya holds a Master of Business Administration from Barry University and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance and International Business from Florida International University.

The Board of Directors and Management of the Bank extend best wishes to Anya and welcome her back to the Board of the Bank.
