

Scotiabank appoints new Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson.

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited is pleased to announce the appointment of Derek Hudson as Chairperson and Wendy-Fae Thompson as Deputy Chairperson of its Board of Directors, effective December 8, 2020.

Derek joined the Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Board of Directors in June 2016. He has chaired various sub-committees and most recently held the role of Deputy Chairperson on the Bank's Board of Directors. A geologist by profession, he has worked in the oil and gas industry for over 30 years at Petrotrin, BG Group and Royal Dutch Shell with leadership assignments in the UK, East Africa and Trinidad and Tobago. Since his retirement as Vice President and Country Chairman, Shell Trinidad and Tobago in June 2019, he has continued to serve the company in a strategic advisory capacity.

Wendy-Fae joined the Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Board of Directors in February 2012 and has served as Chairperson of the Board's Corporate Governance and Human Resource Committee.

An Attorney-at-Law with over 30 years post-qualification experience, Wendy-Fae is presently the Managing Counsel and Vice President at BP Trinidad and Tobago LLC. with oversight for the Americas, Gulf of Mexico and Canada. She manages the company's legal portfolio with specific focus on risk management, corporate governance, regulatory, compliance, energy and commercial matters.

These appointments are a reflection of Scotiabank's commitment to good governance. The Board of Directors, Management and Staff of Scotiabank congratulate Derek and Wendy-Fae on their appointments and look forward to continuing to work with them as we build an even better Bank.

Derek Hudson

Wendy-Fae Thompson

Scotiabank